VOLUME 4 SERIES 20

April Notes from the Mayor

So much has happened in our lives since our last newsletter. The COVID-19 virus has significantly changed our lives. I hope that everyone is adapting to this situation as we find ourselves staying at home while riding out the crisis. I know there are Bancroft residents who are serving as healthcare professionals, public safety workers, and in critical service positions that help us sustain life. We thank you and wish you safety and good health as you provide services we all need. K-12 school teachers have had to make major adjustments in how they teach their classes from their homes using various distance learning platforms. Our thanks to them as they continue to educate our children.

It has been wonderful to see so many people in Bancroft walking, running, biking, walking dogs, and working outside in our yards during what has been a beautiful early spring. Just remember, we need to be careful and maintain social distance as we engage in these pursuits. With even more people walking and biking Bancroft streets, we need to exercise added caution in how we drive.

Chief Yeager continues to patrol the streets of Bancroft during this crisis. If you see Chief Yeager, thank him for the job he does here in Bancroft. Just remember to keep a social distance when you talk with him.

The April City Commission meeting will still be held on Thursday, April 9th, but due to restrictions on governmental operations imposed by Governor Andy Beshear, we will hold the meeting by video conference. Click here, or visit the city website CityofBancroftKY.org, for information on how to access the meeting via video conference. Members of the commission will not be in any single location. Like you, we will attend the videoconference from our homes.

We are still on track to repave our streets this summer. In order to do, this we must hold a public hearing as soon as possible. I have scheduled a public hearing on Wednesday, April 15, 2020. This hearing will also be conducted by video conference. Click here for information on how to join, or visit the city website CityofBancroftKY.org. Like any public hearing, you will have the opportunity to make comments and ask questions about the use of Municipal Road Aid Funds to repave the street.

Stay safe. Stay healthy.

-Mayor Jeff Magers
