November Notes from the Mayor

A few days before the October City Commission meeting, Colonel Yeager, Bancroft Chief of Police, submitted a letter informing the City Commission of his intent to retire. Chief Yeager has over 30 years in law enforcement and over six years as our police chief. Chief Yeager plans to continue working until we find a replacement. That hiring process will be an agenda item at the November meeting. Selfishly, I hate to see Chief Yeager retire. He has served the City of Bancroft in an outstanding manner. His service to the city epitomizes the concepts of community policing. Service is the hallmark of his work. Many things he does to protect the residents of Bancroft go unnoticed by most people, but I have seen many of these acts of selfless service. On the other hand, after three decades of police service, I understand his desire to retire and will help celebrate the conclusion of his successful police career. I will have more to say about Chief Yeager when his retirement date is set. In the meantime, our immediate task is to find a replacement who will continue that dedication to community policing and service to the residents of Bancroft.

-Mayor Jeff Magers

Congratulations to Mayor Jeff Magers who was presented the Level II - Excellence in City Governance certificate on July 1 from the Kentucky League of Cities (KLC). On November 4th, KLC representative Jessica Graves traveled to Bancroft to present the certificate to Mayor Magers. City Governance Certificates are presented to city officials who voluntarily attend KLC training courses. The Level II certificate requires the previous achievement of the Level I Achievement in City Governance certificate and an additional 29 hours of approved courses and one hour of ethics training.

November Meeting Agenda

Police News

Please continue to remain vigilant regarding car break-ins. Lock your car and remove or place items of value in your trunk. While there have been no recent thefts in Bancroft, in August there were two reported cases on the Louisville end of Greenlawn Road near Herr Lane.

HOW CAN WE CONTACT THE POLICE?

For immediate police assistance:

1. Emergency: Dial 911
2. Non-emergency police assistance: Dial 311

For non-urgent neighborhood concerns:

1. Call our police line at (502) 263-3663. Leave a voicemail with your name and phone number. Chief Yeager will call you back when he is on-duty.

For your safety, please call 911 or 311 to have police dispatched. If Chief Yeager is working, then they will dispatch him to help you, otherwise, they will dispatch a Metro police officer. Do not personally seek out Chief Yeager to get assistance for an emergency.

CRIME PREVENTION

Chief Yeager works hard to keep Bancroft safe. Here are a few of his simple crime prevention tips.

- Turn on your porch lights and exterior lights at night.
- Keep your doors locked, even in the daytime.
- Lock your car doors and remove valuables from your cars, even if locked.
- Keep your garage door closed, especially at night.
- If you see something suspicious, then say something.
- Call 911 if you see a prowler.
