4th Of July Parade

Join us for the 1st annual City of Bancroft Independence Day bike parade! It will take place on July 5 (the observed holiday) at 10 a.m. Chief Mudd will be our Grand Marshall.

Meet at the corner of Old Salem and Wesleyan Place at 10 a.m. where we will have supplies to decorate bikes, wagons, strollers, people, scooters, whatever you want that isn't motorized. At 10:30 the parade will proceed down Wesleyan Place to Tavener and back up Old Salem.

Everyone is welcome to join - or line up to cheer the parade on.

We will then have ice cream for those interested in socializing with neighbors. Hope to see you there!

**For those of you who live along the parade route - please be aware of the timing of the parade if you will be needing to leave or return to your homes.

July Notes from the Mayor

The July 8, 2021 city commission meeting will NOT be a Zoom meeting.

For the first time since Governor Andy Beshear's pandemic emergency declaration last March, we will be meeting in person at a physical location. While the Governor has not ended the emergency declaration, the Kentucky legislature passed legislation limiting the Governor's ability to indefinitely declare an emergency without consultation with and consent from the KY legislature. The legislatively imposed deadline thus ended the emergency declaration on June 28. Currently, there is a court injunction on this legislation imposed by the Franklin Circuit Court; however, Kentucky Attorney General Daniel Cameron issued guidance to Kentucky municipalities indicating that in an "abundance of caution" cities should abide by the legislation and return to public meetings in a physical location.

We anticipated the end of Zoom-only meetings and last month approved a temporary physical location for our city commission meetings. Effective July 8, our city commission meetings will be held at the Churchill Downs Building, 600 N. Hurstbourne Parkway, near the UofL Shelby Campus, in the first-floor conference room (600 Room). We have a commitment for that location through December. Until we can meet the statutory requirements for having a public meeting in a physical location that is also videoconference (Zoom), the only way to attend the city commission meetings is in person. We will abide by CDC guidance regarding masking. Currently, that means a mask is not required if you have received both vaccination shots and required if you have not received both vaccination shots.

At the June city commission meeting, we passed the Fiscal Year 2021-2022 property tax ordinance.

As I reported last month, the proposed tax ordinance reduced the tax rate to .345 cents per $100 of assessed value. The proposed FY 2021-2022 budget ordinance had to be amended from the first reading due to receipt of the city liability insurance premium notice that indicated a 100% increase in the premium. We had no claims last year or any years since any of us have been on the commission, but the letter from our liability insurance carrier, the Louisville Area Government Insurance Trust (LAGIT), indicated the need to increase premiums across the board for all cities to ensure sufficient funds for potential claims. As a result, we had to increase the budget estimate from $229,090 to $231,290.

With a first reading of the amended budget at the regular June meeting, this required the second reading of the budget ordinance at a special city commission meeting on June 24. The budget ordinance passed unanimously at the special meeting. Bancroft, like all U.S. cities, is eligible to receive grant funding under the American Rescue Plan Act (ARP). At the June meeting, the city commission agreed to apply for ARP funding. We submitted the ARP application and will await word on the outcome. There are limitations on the use of the funds. The funding can be expended for eligible uses over the next four years. In the coming months, we will be exploring our options for expenditures. At the end of the grant period, all unused funds must be returned to the federal government.

I want to thank all who participated in the city yard sale on Saturday, June 12. It was a beautiful day, and I saw numerous residents taking part in the event. I enjoy the annual yard sale because it gives me the opportunity to meet and talk with so many residents in a few short hours. I want to thank Chief Mudd for working the event almost the entire morning on his patrol bike, meeting with residents, and with so many cars moving through the city making sure all were safe.

This year Commissioner Jaimie Schapker is planning a bike parade event for the kids on Monday, July 5. More details are provided in this newsletter and on Facebook.

Police News

As the weather continues to get nicer, please remember to always lock your vehicles and remove all valuables, keys, and even garage door openers if they are left outside for the night. Even if you only plan to leave the vehicle for a couple of minutes, please turn off the engine and take the keys with you.

During the month of June, there have been several instances of vehicle break-ins as well as outright vehicle thefts within a mile of Bancroft. The times the thefts occurred seem to be concentrated between 7 p.m. through just after midnight, and 6 a.m. through 3 p.m.,. However, please remain vigilant at all times.

If you observe unknown vehicles continuously driving through the city, or strangers walking up to vehicles in driveways and trying to open the doors, please call 574-5471 to have me dispatched. If I'm not available, they will refer the call over to LMPD for investigation. As always, if you believe the matter to be an emergency (actual crime in progress, for example), call 9-1-1.

Chief Mudd
