CITY ALERTS

The Beams on Tavener are still missing their cat Kitty. If you see her, please contact them on Facebook.

NOTES FROM THE MAYOR

As a result of the installation of AT&T fiber optic cable, there has been some minor damage to our roads when boring under the roads. The contractor has indicated his company will arrange for repair when the final list of damage is submitted. Some residents had their invisible dog fences damaged and there has been some reported minor damage to a few driveways. If you have experienced damage to your property and you have not already reported the damage to the contractor, then send me an email and I will put you in touch with the contractor to have your property damage repaired.

Chief Mudd reported no issues with Halloween Night. He was out on his police bike patrolling the city to make sure all were able to have the opportunity for a good time in a safe environment.

With the holiday season quickly approaching, it will not be too much longer before holiday decorations will adorn our light poles throughout the city. Of course, that means snow and ice cannot be too far away. If we have a weather forecast of overnight snow or ice, I ask that you not park on the street. It is difficult to remove snow or treat the streets for ice and snow when the contractor has to work around cars parked on the road.

-Mayor Jeff Magers

On October 17, 2021, former Bancroft city clerk and city commissioner Valerie Wood passed away after an extended bout with cancer. Valerie and her husband Chuck (former Bancroft city engineer) have lived in Bancroft for over 35 years. Valerie devoted many years of service to the City of Bancroft. Her husband Chuck said she wanted to be active in serving Bancroft as the city clerk as a way to give back to the community she loved so much. Being the city clerk, and then later the City Commissioner for Finance and Administration was a natural fit for Valerie since he had earned a degree in accounting at the University of Louisville.

Former Bancroft Mayor Kim Reinhart said about Valerie that “she wanted the neighborhood to be the best it could be.” Kim said that Valerie was frequently the “voice of reason” when the city commission had to deal with difficult and controversial issues and she “had good ideas and truly put the city and residents first” in everything she did.

Chuck said that Valerie was outgoing and friendly with everyone. Chuck and Valerie had been married 51 years and had two children, Brian and Susan, and five grandchildren. Chuck said their family was very important to her, especially her grandchildren. Valerie was a grandmaster Bridge player, former real estate agent, and she worked at an accounting firm at one point in her life. Chuck and Valerie enjoyed boating with their family and friends in their houseboat on the Ohio River. Valerie was an active member of Northeast Christian Church.

It is appropriate that we remember Valerie at this time as a person who lived life to its fullest with her family, friends, and Bancroft neighbors and found time to devote countless hours to the City of Bancroft.

Thank you Valerie for your service to the City of Bancroft. You will be missed.

September Meeting Minutes

NOTES FROM CHIEF MUDD

This month, as our mornings get darker and we “fall back” on our clocks, I’d like to remind everyone to remain alert to pedestrians and bicyclists traveling on our city streets. While I’d like to believe they all will use reflective material and/or lights to make themselves easier to see, this isn’t always the case and it’s prudent to pay extra attention as we traverse the city in our motor vehicles.

HOW CAN WE CONTACT THE POLICE?

For immediate police assistance:

1. Emergency: Dial 911
2. Non-emergency police assistance: Dial 311

For non-urgent neighborhood concerns:

1. Call our police line at (502) 263-3663. Leave a voicemail with your name and phone number. Chief Mudd will call you back when he is on duty.

For your safety, please call 911 or 311 to have police dispatched. If Chief Mudd is working, then they will dispatch him to help you, otherwise, they will dispatch a Metro police officer. Do not personally seek out Chief Mudd to get assistance for an emergency.
