Changes in Commission

With the November election we have a few changes in the Bancroft Commission. We would like to welcome the new Mayor Edwin Evers. Former Mayor Jeff Magers will continue to serve as a commissioner. We would also like to welcome new commissioner Gerrie Leppert. Commissioner Mike Borders did not seek re-election so we would like to thank him for his service and hard work beautifying our city. Remember the changes in the Commission do not take place until January 1, 2023.

TAX TIME!

City of Bancroft taxes were due on December 1, 2022. If you have not paid your tax bill, please do so right away. Contact clerk Tuthill for the updated tax amount.

MAYOR'S NOTES

This is my final month as mayor of the City of Bancroft and my last edition of Mayor's Notes. I have served seven years as mayor and earlier this year made the decision I would not seek re-election. There is no limit on the number of terms the Bancroft mayor may serve, but I believe two terms should be the limit. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as mayor. I have enjoyed serving the City of Bancroft as mayor because it allowed me to contribute in a positive manner to the betterment of our city. Because we have a city commission style government, the mayor serves as a member of city commission which means everything is a team effort with other city commission members and city employees. During my two terms I was blessed to work with very dedicated commissioners and employees. I greatly appreciate their hard work and support. More importantly, I always felt I had the support of the residents of Bancroft. Without your support, it would have been difficult to do this job. I want to congratulate Commissioner Ed Evers on his election as mayor. I have full confidence in his ability to serve as mayor and I wish him the very best during his term in office. In January, I begin a two-year term as a city commissioner, the job to which I was originally appointed, only this time I was elected by you. I look forward to continuing to serve you, the residents of the city of Bancroft.

With the holiday season upon us, more and more packages will be delivered to doorsteps and porches in our city. Unfortunately, that also means package thieves, or “porch pirates” as they are called in the linked article, will become more active and possibly target area homes. As of July of 2022, theft (and damage/destruction) of items delivered to your porch from carriers like UPS, FedEx, Amazon or any common carrier, is now covered under Kentucky Revised Statute 514.140, Theft of Mail Matter, and is a felony offense. After Christmas, also be mindful of the packaging you put on the street for trash pickup. Try to break down packaging that contained expensive electronic equipment so it's not obvious to anyone that these items are inside your home. I wish everyone the best and a very safe and happy New Year.
